

Mary E. Coleman

Associate

mcoleman@curranfirm.com

Office: 253.852.2345

Bio

Mary's practice focuses on a range of family law matters, including dissolutions of marriage, legal separations, parenting plans, child support modifications, paternity actions, and nonparental custody actions. Her practice emphasizes "unbundled" or limited legal services, which include consultation and document preparation for people who represent themselves. Mary has twenty years experience in the area of family law and worked for King County Superior Court as the Unified Family Court Case Manager from 1997 until 2002. She joined Curran Law Firm in 2010.

Professional and Community Involvement

- South King County Volunteer Family Law Settlement Conference Panel, Volunteer and CASA, volunteer
- Washington State Bar Association, Member
- King County Bar Association, Member
- South King County Bar Association, Member
- South King County Legal Clinic, Volunteer Attorney
- Family Law Information Center, Volunteer Attorney, Coordinator

Education

- J.D., with Honors, University of Washington, 1990
- B.S., University of Washington, 1987

Bar / Court Admissions

- Admitted to Washington State Bar
- Admitted to U.S. District Court for the Western District of Washington

Presentations & Publications

- Presenter, "Family Law Issues in Dependency Cases", sponsored by the Juvenile Court Training Oversight Sub-Committee and the Juvenile Law Division of Washington State Bar Association (2010)

- Presenter, "The Life of a Non-Parental Custody Case as a Dependency Permanent Plan", Children's Justice Conference (2010)
- Author, "The King County Bench/Bar Unified Family Court", WSBA Family Law Deskbook (2000)